

[Letter from Alan Lomax to Woody Guthrie, July 26, 1940]

July 26, 1940

Dear Woodie:

All of your letters are being filed for posterity in the high dives. If you want to swap, I'll do so, carbons for first copies, which were all a mist anyhow, and I'll explain when I see you. I've heard your records which are really fine. m M y only regret there is that they didn't have sense enough to use Pretty Boy Floyd. See you Sunday.

With the best regards that the high dives can afford, I A a m sincerely,

Alan
